THREE STAGES OF STEERING COMMITTEE DEVELOPMENT

1STAGE ONE:

Organizational:

1. Recruiting a complete committee.
2. Learning ministry methodology.
3. Understanding Youth for Christ structure & goals.
4. Concern over financial responsibilities.

Committee Relationships:

1. Developing the committee personally.
2. Developing ministry focus internally and externally.
3. Assumption of commitment to staff personnel.

Task Orientation:

1. Involvement in Burger Bash.
2. Involvement in Table Host Reception.
3. Involvement in Sharing Dinner(s).
4. Involvement in ministry event.

This presupposes the initial financial requirement to initiate a ministry.

Allen County Steering Committees are made up of: One committee per school with 5 to 8 couples. Outlying county steering committees are made up of: One committee per county with three couples per school plus one board member as liaison to corporate board.

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

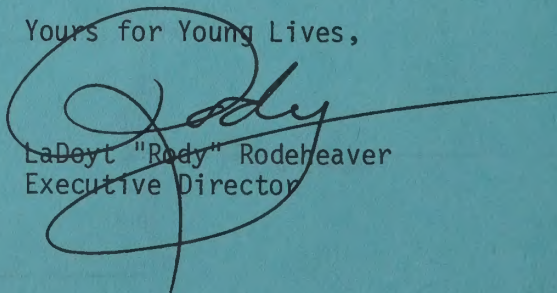

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

QUESTIONS/ANSWERS

Eight (including Table Host(s).)

Hooray, you've caught the vision. Of course! Just let your contact person know so that we can get your materials to you and plan for the additional people.

Let us know their name and address. We'll send a letter with a pledge card.

Try to find a guest to sit in their place. If you are unable to fill the spot:

-if we have 48 hours notice we can advise the caterer and adjust the count.

-if it is last minute, please advise the registration table at the dinner.

Consult your Table Host Information Card for your contact person's name and phone number.

Yes. Each guest (or couple) will have a packet with their name on it at the registration table. They will also be advised of their table number. It is important that each guest picks up their own packet to aid us in arriving at an accurate count for the dinner.

Yes, until the end of September. After that it will be difficult to get the needed material to them to process their table. If you know of a new table host before the end of September, let your contact person know.

How many people are at a table?

Can I fill more than one table?

What if someone can't make the dinner but would like to give?

What if a guest cancels?

Who do I call if I have any questions?

Does each guest pick up their own packet at the dinner?

What if someone I talk to wants to be a table host? Can we still sign them up?

Dear Friend or Relative:

Are you interested in gathering the history of our family Bennett ?

My earliest three generations are given above. Do you know the parents of any of the above ancestors; also any additional information concerning them?

Your help is needed for information on your branch of the family. It may be that your family connects with mine. Please write the information that concerns our family on the reverse side of this sheet and return as soon as is convenient.

If you know other persons who may be able to assist in this search, having their names and addresses would be appreciated. (Write them at the side).

If you are interested in the history or records of these families, I would be glad to share with you what I already have.

Thank you for your help and co-operation.

Sincerely,

Barbara Burgess

m. 1697/98 John Osborne, Jr

WILLIAM FISH, one of the oldest pioneers of La Grange County, was born in Madison County, N. Y., January 13, 1810, one of eight children born to Ebenezer and Hannah (Goodrich) Fish, natives of Connecticut and Massachusetts respectively. Ebenezer Fish served in the war of 1812 and was in the battle at Fort Erie, Canada. In 1830, he came to this county and settled on eighty acres of land on Pretty Prairie, in Greenfield Township. In 1844 or 1845, he came to the home of his daughter, Pedee Forker, where he died in December, 1863. Mrs. Hannah Fish died in January, 1861. Both were members of the Christian Church. William Fish had poor school advantages. In 1826, he went to Michigan, and in 1880 came to Greenfield Township, this county, and staked a claim for eighty acres of land, receiving a patent deed for the same signed by Gen. Jackson. In 1843, he sold this farm and forty acres he had purchased adjoining and went to Iowa, but soon returned and bought a farm in this township, which he traded, in 1851, for one in Branch County, Mich., which he sold the following year and resumed farming in this township, where he has lived since, with the exception of three years that he rented his farm and resided in La Grange. Mr. Fish was an active Regulator, and assisted in opening the wagon road from Lima to Fort Wayne by following an Indian trail. Mr. Fish's first wife died in February, 1846. She was a Miss Mary Leper, a native of Ohio and the daughter of James and Kesiah (Carter) Leper, the former born in Tennessee and the latter in Ohio. She was married to the subject November 28, 1833, and of five children born to them four are living, viz.: Hezekiah, Anna M. (now Mrs. Elliott), Isaiah and Mary J. (now Mrs. Harding). Mr. Fish was again married, in 1846, to Mrs. Margaret Wade, a native of Pennsylvania. Her parents were John and Sarah E. (Johnson) Hanes, natives of Pennsylvania and Canada respectively. Mr. and Mrs. Fish have had five children, three of whom are living—George M., Hannah M. (now Mrs. Orrin Gage) and William R.

GREENFIELD TOWNSHIP

THE JANE MC CREA STORY

In the early days of my researching, when I was less careful about noting details of the sources of the information that I encountered than I should have been, I came across an item which said that the mother of Angelica de la Grange (1785-1857), who married Isaac C. Truax (1784-1873) (5) (Philippe 1, Isaac 2, Abraham 3, Christian 4) was Maria McCrea de la Grange, and that Maria was the niece of "the murdered Jane McCrea."

I never found anything further on this until this fall, when I was reading the October 1981 issue of AMERICAN HISTORY ILLUSTRATED. On page 8, in the regular column entitled "History's Slighter Side," is a brief article about the murder of Jane McCrea.

It seems that Jane's tragedy has had a singular effect on the circumstances of all of us who have met with history more recently, as the "McCrea atrocity" was influential in whipping up indignation and patriotic fervor to a pitch that resulted in the defeat of the British General Burgoyne at Saratoga in 1777, an acknowledged turning point in military fortunes during the American Revolution.

The incident came about in this way: It seems that Jane was the orphaned daughter of a Presbyterian minister in New Jersey, and she was living with her brother John, a Colonial officer, at some point along the Hudson River which was halfway between Fort Edward and Saratoga. In 1777 she was about 20 years old, and she was engaged to a Tory lieutenant in Burgoyne's invading army. After the American withdrawal from the area, Jane went to Fort Edward to visit an elderly lady who was a family friend. At the friend's home she expected to meet her fiance.

A part of Burgoyne's offensive was made up of Indians, and a group of them arrived in advance of any other segment of the British army. Drinking and bent on plundering, these Indians broke into the home where Jane was staying and dragged the two women out. An eye-witness account told how the party of Indians took them up on a hill, where they shot and then scalped Jane McCrea. Strangely enough, they did not harm the older woman. When Jane's fiance arrived somewhat later and was searching for her, he found instead her long red-gold hair streaming in the wind on top of a pole in the Indian encampment.

The reason behind this vicious attack on the young woman has apparently never been explained, but the public outcry that it sparked may have played a part in the shaping of many subsequent events. Now perhaps the story will enable some Truax descendants to gather a bit of additional information about one of the connecting ancestral lines.

Phyllis S. Kitson

Perhaps there is a book on Presbyterian Ministers of Colonial period that would give information about Jane's father, Maria's grandfather.....
